

Trophy hunting in Estonia

Elk, roe deer & wild boar

Come to Estonia for a really thrilling trophy hunt for wild boar, elk or roe deer in Estonia. Our 16.000 hectare hunting ground is located in southern Estonia, near the city of Pärnu, just a 1, 5 hour car ride from Tallinn. The hunting ground has a good balance of animals and our work to keep it this way is done on a daily basis.

We specialize in small groups with two to six hunters. Larger groups can be catered for upon request. Just let us know what your wishes are and we will tailor made your hunting trip according to your desires. Whatever your choices are, you will always have guidance by a professional hunting guide.

Everything from arrival in Tallinn is taken care off. We pick you up from the airport and drive you back when the hunt is finished. Accommodation in hunting lodge or hotel with all meals is included.
